A meeting between Burghley Estates and Rutland County Council is scheduled for Thursday 8th June 2017. Two of council's members of the White Horse Inn committee, namely Cllr's Johnson & Whitfield, have been invited to attend the meeting.

It is proposed that, following the successful exhibition held in July 2016, and the supportive responses from the public, council grant executive powers to the two councillors attending that, if they consider it necessary, they are able to state that, subject to detailed plans being acceptable, Morcott Parish Council supports in principle the proposals by Burghley Estates (exhibited at the exhibition) for the renovation of the White Horse Inn and development of that site and the paddock.
