

This is just a reminder of the Rutland County Council Prospective Councillor Event which will take place on Wednesday 13 February 2019.

This event is being held to help people find out what it takes to become a local councillor and will cover the nomination process and standing for election, the role of a councillor and what support is available, including allowances and training.

There will be a chance to speak with RCC Officers and Directors about council services and also the opportunity to speak to existing RCC Councillors about the role in practice.

The event will take place on Wednesday 13 February 2019 commencing at 7pm at Rutland County Council, Council Chamber, Rutland County Council, Catmose, Oakham, Rutland, LE15 6HP.

Please note we have a confirmed speaker from the Leicestershire and Rutland Association of Local Councils (LRALC). Councillor Tony Hirons (Lutterworth Town Council) will give a brief presentation on the role of the Parish Councillor. Councillor Hirons will be available to answer questions regarding his experiences as a Parish Councillor and also to provide information on the support available from the local association.

I would be grateful if you could circulate this email – the event is open to anyone who is interested in hearing about the role of the Parish or County Councillor and considering standing in the 2019 local elections.

We have attached a flyer regarding the event for you to display if you wish.

For further information and to book a place on this event, please contact governance@rutland.gov.uk or call 01572 720991.

Kind Regards

Natasha
